MINNESOTA – WISCONSIN APPLICATION FOR RECIPROCITY BENEFITS

MINNESOTA OFFICE OF HIGHER EDUCATION WISCONSIN HIGHER EDUCATIONAL AIDS BOARD

GENERAL INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS Minnesota-Wisconsin Tuition Reciprocity Program 2014-2015 Academic Year (Fall 2014 – Summer 2015)

To avoid delay, applications must be mailed directly to the appropriate state agency BY THE APPLICANT

The applications must be completed in INK or TYPED

APPLICATION TO THE PROGRAM IS THE RESPONSIBILTY OF THE INDIVIDUAL

HOW TO APPLY: Complete this application IN FULL and sign the certification. Mail the completed application DIRECTLY to the higher education agency located in your state of residence. Addresses for these agencies are listed below. (NOTE: Minnesota residents can avoid a paper application and apply for reciprocity benefits online at: www.ohe.state.mn.us) (NOTE: Wisconsin residents can avoid a paper application by apply online at: www.heab.wi.gov) Reciprocity recipients who earned credits during the 2013-2014 academic year will automatically have benefits renewed for the 2014-2015 academic year at the institution(s) reporting credits for the student during the 2013-2014 academic year. Therefore, these students do NOT need to complete a reciprocity application for the 2014-2015 academic year. If your current institution has not received notification of your renewal status by November 1, 2014, please contact the administering agency in your state of residence.

DEADLINE: The application deadline is the last day of classes at the institution attended for the term benefits are requested. Applications will not be processed retroactively. If you wish to receive reciprocity benefits for the entire academic year, your application must be correctly completed and postmarked by the last day of scheduled classes for fall term at the institution you are attending. If you would like confirmation that your application was mailed by the deadline, it is suggested you mail the application by certified mail with a return receipt requested from the post office.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE: The Minnesota-Wisconsin Tuition Reciprocity Program improves the postsecondary educational advantages for residents of Minnesota and Wisconsin through greater availability and accessibility of postsecondary opportunities. Under the reciprocity program, any student who is enrolled in an eligible program and meets residency requirements at a public university in Wisconsin may attend a Minnesota public institution on a space available basis and pay the established reciprocity tuition charges for course work that is located in Minnesota. Similarly, any student who is enrolled in an eligible program and meets residency requirements in Minnesota may attend a Wisconsin public institution on a space available basis and pay the established reciprocity tuition charges for course work that is located in Wisconsin. Professional students enrolling in a Doctor of Medicine, Doctor of Dental Sciences, or Doctor of Veterinary Medicine program at a public institution in either state will NOT be eligible for reciprocity benefits, since those programs are not covered by the tuition reciprocity agreement.

NOTIFICATION OF ACCEPTANCE: You will receive the results of your application within six weeks after you have applied. If you do not receive results within six weeks, you should assume your application has not been received and apply again.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION: Application to the Minnesota-Wisconsin Reciprocity Program does not constitute application for admission to an educational institution. Regardless of your eligibility for tuition reciprocity, you must still apply and qualify for admission to the school of your choice, following the procedures required by that institution.

ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES: The Wisconsin Higher Educational Aids Board (WHEAB) will determine the residency and eligibility status of Wisconsin applicants enrolled in Minnesota public institutions and will certify to the Minnesota public institutions that the students are eligible to pay the established reciprocity tuition charges. Similarly, the Minnesota Office of Higher Education (OHE) will determine the residency and eligibility status of Minnesota applicants attending Wisconsin public institutions and will certify to the Wisconsin public institutions that the students are eligible to pay the established reciprocity tuition charges.
